

Realising the global commitment to Leave No One Behind

Ensuring that persons with disabilities and other marginalised groups are included in development cooperation

Programme

Thursday 9 May 2019, from 9:00 to 17:00

Holiday Inn Hotel Berlin City West, Rohrdamm 80, 13629 Berlin

Moderation: Mette Müller Kristensen, International director at Disabled People's Organisations Denmark (DPOD)

-
- | | |
|--------------|--|
| 09:15 | Opening & Welcome
Dominic Haslam, IDDC Chair
Mark Ankerstein, CBM-Germany Director Communication & Programmes |
|--------------|--|
-
- | | |
|--------------|---|
| 09:35 | Leave No One Behind (LNOB) in the Agenda 2030
John Patrick Ngoyi, Core Group Member from “Together 2030”, Nigeria
Dr. Nicola Jones, Principal Research Fellow and Director of the Gender and Adolescence: Global Evidence programme (GAGE), Overseas Development Institute (ODI), UK |
|--------------|---|
-
- | | |
|--------------|---|
| 10:15 | LNOB and its implications for persons with disabilities
Catalina Devandas Aguilar, Special Rapporteur on the rights of persons with disabilities (video message)
Prof. Tom Shakespeare BA Hons PhD FBA, Professor for disability research at the London School for Hygiene and Tropical Medicine (LSHTM) and Co- author World Disability Report 2011 |
|--------------|---|

11:20 Promising governmental approaches for the implementation of the LNOB principle

Moderation: Andrew P. Kroglund, Atlas Alliance Norway, Author Leaving No One Behind, A Nordic Movement for Change

Fredrick Haga, Acting Director, Special Needs Education,
Ministry of Education, Kenya

Jo Cooke, Department for International Development
(DFID), UK

13:35 Panel Discussion LNOB and the SDGs

Moderation: Michael Herbst, Head of political work CBM
Germany

SDG 8 Employment: Jürgen Menze, Disability Inclusion
Officer at the Gender, Equality and Diversity Branch of the International Labour Organization (ILO)

SDG 4 Education: Michael Holländer, Team Leader, Sector
Programme Education, Gesellschaft für internationale
Zusammenarbeit (GIZ)

SDG 3 Health: Johannes Trimmel, Member of the Advisory Group of the UHC2030 Civil Society Engagement
Mechanism, (Sightsavers)

SDG 17 Global partnership: Maria Njeri, Kenyan youth
delegate from Leonard Cheshire and Elizabeth Lockwood,
UN representative, CBM International

14:35 Next steps to make LNOB reality - interactive session

Facilitators: Ola Abu Alghaib (Leonard Cheshire), Sian Tesni (CBM
International) and Julia Mc Geown (Humanity & Inclusion), Jeannine
Ebenso (The Leprosy Mission International), Natasha Kennedy
(Sightsavers)

16:50 Closing and presentation of the final list of recommendations

